IN THE SUPREME COURT OF HONGKONG.

Between YU CHONG, Plaintiff, and
WILLIAM REYNOLDS, Defendant.

WHEREAS an Action has been commenced in this Court at the suit of the above named Yu Chong, against the above named William Reynolds trading under the style or firm of Reynolds Brothers and Company of Hongkong to recover the sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars, for money payable by the Defendant to the Plaintiff, for monies received by the Defendant for the breach of a bill and for damages for the Plaintiff Charter Party made between the Plaintiff and the Defendant; whereby it was agreed that the ship Jao (North-German bark) of seven thousand two hundred piculs carrying capacity should proceed from Hongkong to Yokohama with a full cargo of lawful Merchandise which the said Plaintiff agreed to ship, and there deliver the same, Freight for the same being payable, Fifteen Hundred Dollars at Hongkong, and the balance at Yokohama at the rate of Thirty-eight cents per picul, (certain perils and casualties in the said Charter Party mentioned only excepted), and all conditions were fulfilled and all times elapsed necessary to entitle the Plaintiff to have the said Charter Party fulfilled and performed by the Defendant on his part, yet the ship did not proceed from Hongkong to Yokohama, and the Defendant could not and did not perform his contract, and it being alleged that the said William Reynolds does not reside within this island or its dependencies, a writ of Foreign Attachment has been issued returnable on the Twenty-sixth day of October instant, wherein George Barty Falconer, of Victoria in the Colony of Hongkong, trader, and Collins, Master of the British barque Leen-fa, are Garnishers.

Notice is hereby given, thereof, and that if at any time before final judgment in this Action, the said William Reynolds or any person on his behalf, will give the security and notice, and file the appearance or plea required by the Ordinance of this Island, entitled "An Ordinance to provide for and regulate process in Actions at Law against persons absent from the Colony," the said Attachment may be dissolved.

Dated this Tenth day of October, 1868.

Wm. GASKELL,
Plaintiff's Attorney.

PORT OF AMOY.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

THE BUOYS marking the Dangers in the Harbour of Amoy have been painted according to the Rule in use by the British Admiralty and Trinity Board, viz. to mark the Starboard side of Channels entering by Black or Red Buoys only. The Port side of Channels entering by Black or Red Buoys Chequered or vertically striped with White, and Middle Grounds by horizontally striped Buoys.

KELLET SPIT.—North end formerly marked by a striped Buoy, is now marked by a Red Buoy.

COCKER ROCKS.—formerly marked by a Red Buoy are now marked by a vertically striped Red and White Buoy. This Buoy has been placed about 20 fathoms to the S. E. of the shoalest patch, in order to guard Vessels against Ledges of Rock, with 15 feet water, found to exist in that direction, and it may be passed close to the Port Hand when entering the Harbour. The shoalest patch or pinnacle of the Cocker Rocks, has a floating Beacon on it until further notice.

NEW ROCK.—In North part of Harbour, the S. E. of the Cocker Rocks are marked by horizontally striped Buoys.

In case any of these Buoys are lost or moved, the position will be as soon as possible be marked by a Flag boat or floating Beacon.

THE "TREATY PORTS OF CHINA AND JAPAN," AND "NOTES AND QUERIES ON CHINA AND JAPAN."

EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS.

(From the "Friend of India," June 4, 1868.)

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the numbers for the current year of "Notes and Queries," a most deserving Anglo-Chinese monthly, edited by Mr. N. B. Donny, whose "Treaty Ports of China and Japan," are so well known. From the names attached to the "Notes" we can see that the contributors include some of the best Chinese scholars in the East. Its interest is not confined to China, and it will be of valuable assistance to all scholars, who have directed their attention towards the subject of Buddhism and its literature, and generally to all who are interested in oriental antiquities. It deserves to be better known in India.

(From the "Strait Times," July 27, 1868.)

Some time ago we had occasion to remark upon the progress that literature as represented by the Press had made and was making in the East, and our attention has again been called to the subject by the receipt of a Hongkong publication which deserves some notice and which we have much pleasure in introducing to the knowledge of our readers. We allude to Notes and Queries on China and Japan, published monthly by Mr. Saint, the proprietor of the China Mail newspaper. This publication is well printed on good paper, and in size and shape is very like its well-known namesake or prototype at home, and is equally a mine containing very curious and useful information regarding the language, literature, history, manners and customs of the Chinese and in a less degree of the Japanese. It is a good deal for the extent and stability of the footing of Europeans in China, that such a publication as this should be established and conducted with apparently successful vigour.

The publication is altogether a very interesting one, and wishing it every success, we commend it to the attention and support of our readers.

(From the "London Examiner," May 16, 1868.)

This really useful volume ["Treaty Ports of China and Japan"] is intended as a guide for travellers and residents in China and Japan, and as a book of reference for mercantile men generally. It contains an account, historical and political, of all the open ports of these countries, together with Peking, Yedo, Hongkong, and Macao. It has been carefully compiled and edited by Mr. N. B. Donny, and the elaborate maps and plans, with which the work abounds, considerably enhance its value.

We have thus given in outline some of the more prominent portions of the chapter devoted to Canton, as a specimen of the whole volume. Other chapters treating of Macao, Formosa, Ningpo, Shanghai, and the remainder of the treaty ports, we can only enter into. The pages describing Peking, the capital, are so interesting, and so much that is new to European readers respecting its history, public buildings, and general characteristics, that we would fain transfer them to our columns. A complete and intelligible plan of the Imperial City and neighbourhood, gives us an accurate notion of the relative position of its divisions, streets, and places.

In the introductory chapter to the notices of the Treaty Ports of Japan will be found a succinct history of that Empire, together with remarks on its government, geography, and habits, which will be found particularly interesting as throwing a considerable light on a part of the world so long entirely, and still comparatively, unknown to Europeans.

The descriptions of Nagasaki, Yedo, Yokohama, and the other Treaty Ports of Japan, are as elaborate and entertaining as those of the Chinese ports. A copious index and a useful appendix containing many hints and much appropriate advice to travellers and others, is also included in the volume. The entire work affords a vast amount of information, pleasantly written, and we doubt not will be perused with interest by many who will never visit the Eastern seas.

Police and Gaol
vening made by the crews were ingness and zeal us a copy, from which we have reprinted the latest telegrams in another column.

We are sorry to learn that the new tea by the first homeward clipper, with one exception, has been placed on a falling market, so that considerable loss may be apprehended to the shippers on this side.

We learn that Captain Demier, lately employed by the Union Dock Company at Whampoa, has been appointed to the post of foreign commander of the now celebrated gun-boat Chun-ho, in lieu of the valiant Mr. Marcy.

The gunboat Fei-long, commanded by Captain Francis, has been stationed at Whampoa by the Chinese authorities, we are informed, in consequence of the recent attack on Dr. Shillito's house at that place.

We observe that His Italian Majesty's steam-cruiser, the Principessa Clotilde, Captain Rionda, left this port on Saturday, the 19th for China and Japan. She is a wooden screw of 2,200 tons burthen, and 400 horse-power. She is 223 feet long with a beam of 53 feet. She carries 14 heavy cast-iron rifled guns, with steel hoops round the breech to enable them to fire heavy steel shot that will pierce iron plates.

These guns can penetrate iron plates 44 yards (11 inches) thick at a distance of 200 yards. The Clotilde is manned by a crew of 328 all told, and she steams easily 12 knots an hour. She left Gibraltar on the 15th of May last, and touched at the Cape of Good Hope, where she left on the 15th Aug. She has been appointed to the Japanese station.—Straits Times.

The Singapore steamer Ohu Phya arrived at Singapore from Bangkok on the 6th inst., with dates to the 1st of Idem. She brought the news that the King of Siam, when she left, was not expected to live for many days. His Majesty had been suffering from jungle fever, caught at Hua Wan in August last, when taking observations of the Eclipse. Some apprehensions were entertained that His Majesty's decease would be the signal for revolutionary disturbances. H. M. S. Acorn, Captain Fitzroy, accompanied by the Riflemen, Staff-Commander Reed, proceeded to Bangkok.

From Surabaya 19th September, we learn the following terrible circumstances concerning a ship belonging to Batavia—the Sophie Louisa, Captain de Bruin Prince, of which no news had been received for a long time. This said vessel traded to Cotti, in Gutter Percha and other products. After the receipt of a considerable sum, the collection of which had cost much trouble and patience, the said vessel was unexpectedly attacked in the northern parts of the Straits of Malacca by persons who undoubtedly knew that last specie was on board. The captain soon fell a victim, while his wife who had rushed on at the cry of murder, was literally hacked to pieces, and thrown overboard with her child. After the killing of some well disposed sailors, the remainder of the crew sought to save themselves by the mast and rigging. The villainous however forced them, at the muzzle of loaded muskets, to come down and haul the ship in shore, but they feared the inhabitants might thwart their schemes, from the fear of the Dutch Government, and they therefore left the vessel sinking. We are assured, that the perpetrators of this abominable murder, have been given up, by some of the well-inclined population.

A BATAVIAN Journal says—"From a statement published in the Government paper, regarding the state of the rice crop in Java, and Madura, at the end of July, it appears that the harvest as far as it has ended, had resulted favorably, and been extraordinarily abundant."

TO-DAY'S POLICE.
Mr. May sat on the Bench to-day, and disposed of a large number of cases, new and remanded.

Two native blacksmiths from the P. & O. were charged by Thomas Rose, for an offence of larceny. The Indian watchman observed the first defendant unattended early at his work, but found that he was cutting a piece from a roll of lead. First defendant (a boy of sixteen) was sent to hard labor for two months, two periods of three days each to be passed in solitary confinement, and to be twice flogged in ten strokes each. Second prisoner was discharged.

For having sold five-cents' worth of pre-arranged opium without a license, a Chinaman named Wong Ann was fined $2, and all the opium in his place forfeited, or in default a month's imprisonment. Mr. Carpenter, the Opium Farmer's Inspector, protested.

Lim Aing (stonecutter) and Sune Ashing (hawker), charged with having been concerned in the death of Mr. Tansey at Kowloon Docks, were committed for trial to-day. Prisoners reserved their defence.

Mo Assum, another stonecutter who stood charged with having been concerned in the above murder, was discharged; but the prisoner was at the same time advised to leave the Colony, and furnished with a dollar to facilitate matters.

Mr. Miller, plumber, distinguished himself the other day, in company with his wife, by the capture of a Chinese in possession of a piece of iron supposed to be stolen. Prisoner was identified as an old offender, and was sent to hard labor for three months as a rogue and vagabond, was ordered to find security, and was recommended for deportation.

For some time back, it appears a system of coal-robbing has been going on at the Coal Godowns of the P. & O. Co., West Point. Lee Aing (a shopman), Poon Ayue (his coolie) and Leong Ping Yeng (godown coolie to the Company) have been in custody on remand since the 8th inst., charged with being the organizers and perpetrators of this nefarious system.

The case came on again to-day, when Mr. Brereton appeared to defend the shopman. Mahomet Khan (the Indian Watchman) appears to have detected the "little game," and on inquiry a quantity of coal was found in the shopman's shop, for which receipts were attempted to be produced. But Mr. Notley (of Messrs Walker & Co.) proved that the receipts were for different coal altogether; while Mr. Pearson (the Co.'s coal storekeeper) proved that the coal was the same kind as that in the Company's godowns, and the shopman's coolie had been detected removing the same from the godown. Mr. Brereton said, he had known the correct facts of the case, but he had come up before his Worship at all; but he had been differently advised. His Worship sent the shopman's coolie to Gaol, with hard labor, for three months; while the shopman and the godown coolie be sent to hard labor for six months, besides ordering them to find security of $100 each for six months following.

Ngai Asow—who was discharged by proclamation at the sitting of the Supreme Court this morning, having been acquitted of piracy—was brought up by Inspector Daly and charged with having, on being first locked up in August last, attempted to escape, and in the Police shop. He was in the act of tying the silk from his waist round his neck when he was discovered. The facts of the charge of piracy, Mr. Daly stated, were sufficient to justify the prisoner's detention as a dangerous man. Mr. May thereupon sent prisoner to hard labor, as a rogue and vagabond, for three months; besides ordering this suitably-inclined individual to find security for six months, and offering to bring his case before H. B. the Governor, so that the prisoner's passage might be taken and paid for out of the Colonial funds.

ROBERT M'DONALD was also brought up for sentence; and his Lordship remarked, that had the escape been a voluntary one, the punishment would have been very severe. As it was, and prisoner had lost his situation and hindered business a good character, he would pass a lenient sentence—viz., that he pay $50 fine to the Queen, and remain in gaol until such fine be paid.

John Gray was next placed at the bar charged with having obtained money under false pretences to which he pleaded not guilty. On the complaint being called for, neither complainant nor police inspector could be found. Complainant appeared, with Inspector Kirby, about a half an hour after this, and the Court asked for an explanation, which Kirby rendered by saying that he had been misdirected and had gone to find the Kwong Yung Hong at Praya Central instead of Bonham Strand. The Court said it was the duty of an inspector in charge of a case to have the witnesses present, in order to prevent delay.

Chun Achoy the complainant, was then sworn. He stated that he is a trader here, but had a store in Sydney, and received advice of the expected arrival of the barque Australind. Prisoner came in to his store one day, and said that his ship (the Australind) had arrived, that he was the Captain (Barnack), and that he wanted an advance of $6, which would be repaid when he came on board. A paper, bearing the words "Captain Barnack, barque Australind," was produced by complainant at the time and shown to prisoner, when the prisoner said that that was his name. Complainant congratulated the quasi-captain on his arrival, and asked him to have breakfast; but the prisoner did not stay to breakfast. A few days after this, when Achoy had discovered by the arrival of the real Captain Barnack that prisoner was a "cheat," he met prisoner, charged him with the offence and demanded back his $6. Prisoner tried to satisfy the complainant, first by offering him a label for a bale of goods as a $20 note, and secondly by giving him the choice of some gingerbread and wallery. When complainant said that the alleged $20 note was not Hongkong money, Green or Grey ran away; but was caught and charged by the police.

As the ship Australind had left port, Mr. Thornton (of the Harbour Master's Department) proved the fact, and the evidence of Captain Barnack that the Magistrate was then read. He therein stated that he never knew prisoner.

Prisoner then, as he said, "addressed the gentleman of the Jury." It was possible that any household "or any of that sort of thing" would give money to him, whom he had never known, "which" was a complete stranger, "which" he gave him a sum of $0 without any receipt or acknowledgment? He never knew Chun Achoy, nor had he ever seen or known Captain Barnack; there was no resemblance between them as Captain Barnack was a middle-aged man, and he (prisoner) was a young man.

Addressing the Court, prisoner continued to say, "I thought that the Chinaman was crazy, my lord. I still think he is crazy, my lord. In reply to the Court, prisoner observed, 'I have only one witness, my lord; a gentleman named Friary, my lord, who saw me leave for Canton on the 1st September and come back on the 6th. But I believe he is dead, my lord.' His Lordship summed up, and the Jury, apparently not at all satisfactorily, returned a verdict of guilty. The Judge then elicited some information touching the previous character of the prisoner, which showed that Gray, Green or Martin had figured in Courts here as well as Shanghai, and was liberated from Gaol here only four days before the commission of the offence of which he had now been found guilty. Mr. Ball then, addressing prisoner, observed that he had been found guilty upon the clearest possible evidence, and independent of any knowledge of the prisoner's previous bad character. He would pass a severe sentence, viz., three years' penal servitude.

This concluded the business of the Session, and the Court then rose.

ARRIVAL OF THE ENGLISH MAIL.

The P. & O. S. Emu, Captain Barlow, arrived in harbour this morning, bringing the outward mails of 5-11th Sept. The following are the latest telegrams, dated London—

23rd Sept.—Mr. Robert Montgomery has been gazetted a member of Council for India vice Mr. Eastwick resigned. Surgeons Lumsdane and Lane have been promoted.

24th Sept.—Mr. Reverdy Johnston, when replying to an address, at Leeds, dwelt upon the community of interests of England and America. The latest accounts respecting the Spanish Revolt are very conflicting. The insurrectionary movement is apparently gaining ground. The insurgents demand the expulsion of the Bourbons. Queen Isabella still remains at St. Sebastian.

25th Sept.—Charles Will, query Mills, has been made a Baronet. The latest advices from Spain state that the insurgents have made themselves masters of the whole of the Fleet, and of Andalusia, Estremadura, Galicia, and Santander. The Main Body of the insurgents is at Seville. The Royal Troops are advancing against them. The inhabitants at Guegras, the residence of Espartaco, have revolted.

26th Sept.—The Messageries Impériales Company are about to run an alternate China steamer with the Peninsular and Oriental Company's steamer. The Spanish Royalty have re-occupied Seville after obstinate fighting on the part of the insurgents. Dean Milman is dead. Charles Mills has resigned his seat in the Council. Snowdrop is the winner of the Eastern Handicap.

28th Sept.—Latest advices from Spain state that a battle is highly expected between Generals Novallier and Perrauch near Cordova; the vanguards of the former had joined the army of the latter. General Frigola, of the latter, refused to surrender. A conflict is expected to take place at Valladolid, and in a large portion of two castles (and in a large portion of Castile). It is pronounced, the Czar of Russia is about to visit the King of Prussia. Madame Rachel has been convicted and sentenced to five years' penal servitude.

29th Sept.—The latest advices from Spain state that the people of Cartagena and Granada have both revolted, and the Royal Troops withdrawn. A Revolutionary Manifesto has been published, favouring Universal Suffrage, Liberty of the Press, Liberty of Education, Religion and Commerce. The Manifesto also favours the abolition of the Dynasty.

30th Sept.—The Liverpool Cotton Market closed firm and advancing. Western India, the people of Cartagena and Granada have both revolted, and the Royal Troops withdrawn. A Revolutionary Manifesto has been published, favouring Universal Suffrage, Liberty of the Press, Liberty of Education, Religion and Commerce. The Manifesto also favours the abolition of the Dynasty.

OWTANK.—The deaths are recorded of Lord Ashburton, General Macdonald, Lord Howard de Walden (British Envoy at the Belgian Court), and Mr. R. Montgomery Martin.

THE CHINESE EMBASSY.—Mr. Burlingame and his associates, with their suite, left the United States for this country on the 8th inst. It is said they will make a short stay in Liverpool before coming to London to open negotiations. The American Embassy is attending much attention, and has been discussed by The Times, Pall Mall Gazette and Standard.

THE FRENCH MAIL SERVICE.—As a preliminary step towards commencing a fortnightly service, the directors of the Messageries Impériales intend to change the days of departure from a fixed day of the month to a day of the week. The alteration will probably take effect with the outward October mail, or at latest the November one. The day of departure from Marseilles, will be Saturday.

THE TRANSIT THROUGH EGYPT.—We learn by telegram that the new line of railway between Suez and Alexandria is now open for traffic, and that passengers by the India and China mails will in future proceed by this route, which occupies only ten hours, including stoppages.

CLEVELAND.—The new American Minister made his first public appearance in this country at a banquet at Sheffield, when Mr. Roosevelt made a most offensive speech regarding America, to the indignation of the whole country. The inquest on the victims of the Absegoe railway accident ended in a verdict of manslaughter against the two brakemen of the goods train. Another Spanish outbreak in the British Isles is reported. Mr. Jefferson Davis is now in London. More riots have been excited in Manchester by Murphy, the No-Popery lecturer, who (to secure freedom of speech) has come forward as a candidate for Parliament. An intended "fight for the Championship" has been effectually stopped by the police. The second execution under the new Act took place this week within the walls of Newgate.

FRANCE.—The Emperor has been at the camp at Châlons, and the Court leaves this week for Biarritz. Lord Stanley in passing through Paris had another interview with the Marquis de Moustier. The Count and Countess of Gergent are in Paris, where they have been received with great honour; the Countess being a daughter of the Queen of Spain, this is considered to have some political significance. M. de Laguerrière has determined to visit Prussia; is appointed Ambassador to the Court of Berlin.

NORFOLK.—Count Bismarck has met with an accident which has delayed his recovery; he is expected to come to England for sea-bathing. A difference has arisen between the King of Prussia and Saxony.

RUSSIA.—The Emperor of Russia is about to visit the Prussian Court; this is regarded as contradictory of the rumours of an alliance between the two Powers.

AUSTRIA.—New laws are promulgated by which the Ecclesiastical Courts will be still further shorn of their power.

THE PRINCE ROYAL OF BELGIUM is believed to be in a hopeless state.

ITALY.—King Victor Emmanuel has had a narrow escape of death by an accident while shooting. Garibaldi has resigned his seat in Parliament. The Italian Government has renewed its protest against the French occupation of Rome.

UNITED STATES.—Cable telegrams report a battle with Indians in Kansas, in which they were defeated with great loss. The talk of a "protectorate of Mexico," and "rectification of the frontier" in that direction, is revived. A conflict of races seems imminent in the South. President Johnson is expected to visit Europe next spring.

A TRIP TO THE TEA-DISTRICT OF KU-LO.
(From the Courier.)
(Concluded.)

On the morning of the 15th inst., we once more took leave of our hospitable Chinese friends. The morning air was fresh and invigorating, the exhilarating effect of which, however, was slightly marred by an adverse North Westerly wind, causing, in consequence of the meeting of wind and tide, spray to dash occasionally into our faces.

beautiful appearance, being embosomed in the midst of umbrageous trees. Whilst gazing upon this lovely landscape, we were reminded of the mortality of man by a long funeral procession which was winding its way through the plain. So long was this cortege that it took a quarter of an hour to pass a given point. All the persons forming this solemn train were clad in long white robes, the effect of which, as seen from the top of the mountain, was very imposing.

At the sun, was rapidly approaching the Western horizon, we were warned that it was time to withdraw from this fairy spot, and to hasten to the town of Shek-Wan, where it was our intention to pass the night. On our way to this town, we visited Lan-Shek, famous for its timber market. And judging from the innumerable rafts of timber, which we saw leaving this town we concluded that the timber trade was uncommonly brisk. When we arrived at Shek-Wan, night had fairly set in, and being unable to find the residence of the Chinese gentleman whose intention it was to entertain us, we were obliged to pass the night in our boats. As our Ma-lang-teng was very small, this, of course, was attended with much inconvenience. At break of day, anxious to escape from our uncomfortable berths, and seeking on the bank of the river a detached farmhouse, we landed and asked the householder to allot us a room in which to perform our morning ablutions. The worthy farmer received us kindly, and, having acceded to our request, said we were at liberty to occupy any of the rooms we thought most convenient. Entering one of these apartments, we were almost overwhelmed by the fearful smell arising from the corner of a room, who, we were subsequently told, had died four days previously of fever. Nor was this bad odour confined to the room where the corpse lay. Indeed it pervaded every chamber of the house, and further confirmed us in our belief that the olfactory nerves of the Chinese are not by any means of a sensitive nature. We discovered, however, an outflow which very well answered the purpose for which we required it. Having breakfasted, we entered the town of Shek-Wan, for the purpose of visiting the potteries. In this respect we were highly gratified, for not only was an opportunity afforded us of seeing the mode in which the pots are made, but also of inspecting the vast furnaces in which they are baked. These furnaces are employed by day and night, and so great is the lurid glare which arises from the glowing coals, the hours of darkness as to illumine the heavens. With regard to the treatment which we received at the hands of the people of this place, we cannot write in very flattering terms, but entertain a shrewd suspicion that as far as rudeness is concerned, the Shek-Wan-ites do not greatly surpass the potters of the more civilised countries of the globe. We were now anxious to extend our journey to Foshan, a large town this, which we reached at noon. Upon our arrival there, the first feature that presented itself to the view was the vast boat population which thronged its creeks. We embarked at the wharf called the Ma-Pin, and immediately wended our way to the principal temple of which the town can boast. There are three in number, and are respectively dedicated to the Gods Kwan-Tai, Pak-Sai, and the Goddess Tian-Hong. Of these three temples, the most extensive is the one in honour of Pak-Tai. It is built of granite and presents a somewhat imposing appearance. In the square, in front of this temple, there is a pond containing turtles, which, by the Chinese, are considered as sacred to the idol. The streets of Pak-Shan are upon the whole neat and clean, and the shops and stores which constitute them, are not much inferior to those in the city of Canton. The trade of the place is very extensive, and no wonder, as the town itself is located near the confluence of three large streams. But though this city is celebrated for its good situation, and the riches of its commerce, we cannot say that it is at all famous for the civility and politeness of its inhabitants. It was now time for us to return to Canton, and having a full day, we found ourselves, after an agreeable run of two hours, at our respective homes. And thus, was brought to a close one of the most agreeable trips which, during our stay in China, it has ever been our privilege to make.

SAIGON.
(From the Courier, Sept. 5.)
The state of the Colony is satisfactory; the troubles which had broken out last month at some isolated points are no longer felt.

The inhabitants of the plains are busy with the culture of their rice fields, which are being retarded by the drought; and avail themselves eagerly of the abundant rain, which fell for some days. They began to hope for a pretty good crop, which would indemnify them for the misadventures of that of 1867. Never have we had a concurrence of circumstances more unfavourable than that of the last year. Prolonged droughts were succeeded on a portion of the territory by heavy rains, and the combination which had devastated every thing. Besides, there was but little demand for Rice from outports; and ships were retained far from our coasts by unforeseen events; by the Abyssinian expedition, among others, freights having attained an exorbitant rate.

The natives could not obtain remunerative prices for their rice, and the political crisis we were passing through, at the same time, had impeded all their transactions.

The consequences of this difficult position, have been less grave than they would have been in any other country.

The population has not suffered from scarcity of rice, which has not been exported in large quantities, and which has maintained itself at a very moderate price.

The great works undertaken at Saigon by the Government, and the European residents, have maintained a real activity, and sustained general confidence; it is at the most, if some lessening of taxation, accorded to some villagers too rudely, may diminish in a small proportion our local receipts.

Definitely, of this embarrassment of a moment, which has not altered general confidence, in the resources of the Colony, there will remain only the remembrance of a trial, easily gone through; and the certainty that such event cannot shake the commercial development.

On the 3rd Sept., at one o'clock, the steam boat L'Aveyron set sail to succour the English gun-boat Starling, disabled by a gale of wind, and compelled to put into the bay of Camrach, north of Cape Padaran. Two officers, despatched two days ago to Saigon, in a junk, arrived during the night of the 2nd and 3rd at Cape St. James.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.
HIS Medicine is universally admitted to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and China as this fine and invigorating medicine. It is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of Italian man who they may insure a restoration to robust health.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cures after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcers, and also the most inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as certain old sores can be removed by it that cannot be conquered by any other treatment.

F. W. MITCHELL,
Postmaster General.
General Post Office,
Hongkong, June 18, 1868.

1.-On the 1st October next, and thereafter Money Orders will be issued at this Office and at the Agencies thereof at Shanghai and Yokohama on all the Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for amounts not exceeding £10, at the rate of Exchange Current for each Mail, and charged with Commission according to the following Scale, viz:-

For sums not exceeding £2, 12 " "
Above £2 and not exceeding £5, 24 " "
Above £5 and not exceeding £10, 48 " "
For every additional £5, 24 " "

2.-No Money Order to include a fractional part of a Penny.

3.-Orders drawn in the United Kingdom upon Hongkong, Shanghai, and Yokohama, will be paid at the rate of Exchange at which Money Orders are being issued at the time of their presentation.

4.-Alphabetical Lists of over 3,700 Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, showing the Counties in which they are situated, are hung up for public reference at this Office, and also at Shanghai and Yokohama.

5.-Applicants for Money Orders must furnish, in full, the surname, and, at least, the initial of one Christian name; both of the Remitter and the Payee; if the Remitter or Payee be a Peer or a Bishop, his ordinary title will be sufficient; if a firm, the usual designation of such firm, such as "Baring Brothers," will suffice; but the mere term Messrs., such as "Messrs. Richardson," or the name of a Company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, such as "Carron Co.," is inadmissible.

6.-The Remitter, on sending the Order, is to be paid only through a Bank, to have the option of giving or withdrawing the name of the Payee in such way that the Order will be crossed in the same way that Cheques are commonly crossed when they are intended to be paid through a Bank.

7.-When an Order is presented through a Bank, a receipt by any person will be sufficient, provided the Order be crossed with the name of the receiving Bank, and be presented by some person known to be in the employ of such Bank.

8.-The signature of the Payee of a Money Order to be affixed to the Order in the place provided for the purpose. If the Payee be unable to write he must sign the receipt by making his mark in the presence of a Witness, who must sign his name with his address in the presence of the Officer who pays the Order.

9.-Should the Payee of a Money Order desire to receive payment in the Country in which the Order was issued, at some other Office than that in which the Order was originally drawn, the transfer will be granted, provided the Order be indorsed to the Postmaster of the Office in which it was drawn. In such case a new Order will be issued, the Commission chargeable upon which will be deducted from the amount of the new Order.

10.-In the event of a Money Order miscarrying or being lost, a duplicate will be granted on a written application from the Payee, (containing the necessary particulars, and accompanied by an additional Commission) to the Office where the Original Order was issued.

11.-On the receipt of a similar application, orders will be given to stop payment of a Money Order, or to renew a lapsed Order. The additional Commission in the last case will be deducted from the amount of the new Order. Lapsed Orders must be presented with the application for a new Order.

12.-But when it is desired that any error in the name of the Remitter or Payee should be corrected or that the amount of a Money Order should be repaid to the Remitter, or that a Lapsed Order should be renewed for payment in the Country in which the Order was originally drawn, application must be made to the Chief Money Order Office of each Country. This application must be accompanied by an additional Commission, unless it has reference to a Lapsed Order in which case the Commission will be deducted from the amount of the new Order.

13.-Repayment whether of an original, or renewed, or a duplicate Order, will not be made to the remitter until it has been ascertained that the advice has been cancelled at the Office on which the Order was originally drawn.

14.-Payment of an Order must be obtained before the end of the Sixth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn; for instance, if drawn in January, payment must be obtained before the end of July, otherwise the Order will become lapsed, and a new Order (for which a second Commission, to be deducted from the amount of the Order, will be charged) will become necessary.

15.-If an Order be not paid before the end of the Twelfth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn, for instance, if drawn in January, and not paid before the end of the following January, all claim to the Money will be forfeited, unless, under peculiar circumstances, the Post Office of the Country in which the Order was drawn think proper to allow it.

16.-After once paying a Money Order by whomsoever presented, the paying Office will not be liable to any further claim. If a wrong payment, however, be made owing to negligence on the part of any Officer of the Post Office, the Postmaster General of the Country or Colony in which the negligence occurs will, if he see fit, require the Officer in fault to make good the loss.

17.-No Money Order will be paid unless the advice has been previously received.

18.-Additional Rules for greater security against fraud, and for the better working of the system generally will be made as occasion may require.

19.-Should it appear that Money Orders are used by fraudulent means, or for other ends in the United Kingdom or at Hongkong, Shanghai or Yokohama, for the transmission of large sums of money, the British or Colonial Post Office, as the case may be, will consider the propriety of increasing the Commission, and will exercise the power of wholly suspending for a time the issue of Money Orders.

By Command,
F. W. MITCHELL,
Postmaster General.
General Post Office,
Hongkong, 22nd August, 1868.

The author in his Preface says:—"The tables in CHAP. VII., for estimating prices, measurement of goods, exchange, &c., have been selected from those constantly in use among the foreign merchants in China.
Those for calculating the prices of tea in dollars or pence have been copied from the more extended tables, by the kind permission of the author, P. Loureiro, Esq.
The last section of the same chapter on "Movements in Bullion," has been prepared and furnished for the Guide by Patrick R.
Harper, Esq., of the Commercial Bank of India at Hongkong, who has had much experience in the exchanges and movements of the precious metals in Eastern Asia.
"The Appendix of Sailing Directions has been reprinted from the 'China Pilot.'
With short interruptions, the coasts from Singapore to Hakodadi are all described in it; and for the Chinese coasts, the Directions have been improved by the insertion of the Chinese characters for the names of all places that could be ascertained."
